      	Crayon Crackled Painting	Crayon Crackled Painting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Each student should receive a white paper and some crayons.</li> <li>• Lay newspaper on the table before beginning.</li> <li>• Students shall draw anything they like using the crayon. Encourage them to color darkly or heavily..</li> <li>• Once the paper is covered with crayon art, ask students to take and crumple it up -- making sure not to rip it to bits.</li> <li>• Help the students to lay the paper out as flat as it will go on a piece of newspaper.</li> <li>• The next step involves covering the crumpled paper with watered down paint.</li> <li>• Make sure that the paint is not too thick by testing it on a scrap piece of paper. A thin wash of color is what is required. ( Teacher must test it the day before)</li> <li>• Using a paintbrush, students can cover the paper with a paint wash. The paint will go into all the little cracks that began to appear when the paper was crumpled.</li> </ul>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. White paper</li> <li>2. Crayon</li> <li>3.
